

THE BONE WARS GAME

O. C. Marsh and Edward Cope were in fierce competition to see who could discover the most dinosaur fossils. They snooped and tricked each other to win the Bone Wars, but in the end, neither was the clear winner. See who comes out on top in this fun game for two players.

START

If you land exactly on a space with directions, follow the prompt. You must land exactly on the “Winner!” space to end the game.

DINOSAUR BONES PUZZLE

Cope goofed when putting bones together to create the skeleton of elamosaurus. Marsh happily pointed out the error and the Bone Wars began! Cut along the blue lines of the T. rex skeleton below. Mix up the pieces and see if you can put the bones back together correctly!
